MATRIMONIAL.

To THE LADIES OF THE UNITED STATES:

It has been my great desire to rescue to health many thousands of my country-women.

My success has excited the notice of the envious and jealous, but their persecutions have served only to extend and establish my reputation. Showers of grateful offerings have been sent me from all parts of the globe, and I have received, below, a few in kind, in affectionate and kindred remembrance by those who have experienced my skill. I am called to despoil the efforts of mankind, and a standard.

My friends have repeatedly implored me to place my medical practice, pending my retirement, within the reach of the Ladies of the United States; but an indisposition to enter a field so occupied by quacks, with their pernicious nostrums and a four or five unprincipled counterfeits eight places apart, the former two worthless quacks, has hitherto kept me from doing this, especially Black Books, Ledgers, Journals, Sales Books, Receipts Books, &c. &c.

PERSONAL.—Gov. Chase passed through the city last evening on his way to the Ashtabula County Fair at Jefferson to-day.

HORACE GREELEY.—This distinguished journalist was in Cleveland yesterday, on his way to deliver an Agricultural Address at the Conneautville, Indiana, Fair, on Wednesday next.

In regard to the "AMIE DE FEMME," we need only say, that it is in liquid form, and is exactly such as I have used in my practice for many years, and that he has never failed to produce a satisfactory result.

The "AMIE DE FEMME" is a most singular and curious article of medical art. It is a salve, composed of a variety of medicinal ointments where it never has existed, and it is where it has been from time past.

In order to guard against the writer of "L'Amie de Femmes," we bear our witness to the fact that the "AMIE DE FEMME" will bear my written signature, both the bottle and enclosing box will be sealed with my private seal.

Price, $3.00 a package.

D. P. H. RICORD.
